

The Technancial Company and Associates in Capital Markets Join Forces to Address MiFID II Compliance Challenges

Tuesday, 30 August 2016, London: Leading real-time risk management and trade surveillance solutions firm, The Technancial Company (TTC) and London based specialist advisory firm Associates in Capital Markets (ACAPM) today announce a collaborative partnership to address the challenges in MiFID II compliance, especially in the areas of margin management and trade surveillance. MiFID II is a mammoth regulatory exercise aimed at enhancing investor protection and affects financial institutions on a varied scale in Europe and the UK. The collaboration between the two companies is a timely synergy in combining specialist experience and powerful tools for capital markets regulations and compliance.

With aggressive compliance schedules and significant impacts on strategic, business and operating models, financial institutions need ready-to-go solutions which are supported by a deep understanding of the market and regulatory expectations in order to navigate the complexities of MiFID II. This collaboration is precisely aimed at providing such a unique value proposition to the financial institutions of varied sizes in all the markets where MiFID II impacts.

Mirko Marcadella, MD of The Technancial Company said: “We believe the key to success in a demanding regulatory environment is the ability of the organisations to adapt their strategies and have the operational capability to respond swiftly and effectively. Our partnership with Associates in Capital Markets enables us to provide the industry with a distinctive combination of tried and tested technology solutions and a multidimensional approach for a holistic compliance strategy for capital market regulations like MiFID II, MIFIR and the like.”

Cornelius Nandyal, Director at ACAPM said: “We are excited to collaborate with The Technancial Company to offer financial institutions a compelling and sustained value proposition across the MiFID II compliance roadmap. We believe that combining our specialist expertise and focus of Capital Market Regulations with the powerful JANUSTM suite of Trade, Margin and Surveillance solutions from TTC will empower banks and financial institutions to achieve the singular goal of continuous compliance in an efficient and cost-effective manner.”
